CALELECTRIC COMPANY WORKMEN load one of three huge transformers on a truck to take them from their storage place to the north and substation at Vista Chino and Indian Avenue, where they will play their part in the redevelopment of the vital power booster source. The transformers are 3300 to 4160 volt stopdown series. California Electric Power Company has announced they plan renovation of the power substation at the north end, aimed at bringing up standards at the site. (Desert Sun Photo)

UNION THREATENS 229 CONGRESSMEN

WASHINGTON — UPI — James B. Carey, electrical workers president, has sent letters advising 229 House members who voted for the administration-backed labor reform bill that "we shall do all in our power" to beat them in the next election.

Carey signed the letter, which accused lawmakers of taking part in a "vindictive assault on the labor movement" by backing the so-called Landrum-Griffin bill.

REP. JAMES C. AUCHINCLOSS (R-N.J.) made public copies of the letter. He called it "bitter and ill-tempered" and replied it a letter to Carey: "Please do not insult me by threats."

Carey's office said the same letter was sent Tuesday to all 95 Democrats and 134 Republicans who voted in the House last Thursday to substitute the Landrum-Griffin bill, supported by conservatives and business groups for a milder labor reform proposal.

CAREY HEADS THE International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers.

His office said he also sent letters to the 184 Democrats and 17 Republicans who opposed the substitute plan, expressing his "deep appreciation" for their stand and their "courage" in the face of "terrible pressures."

CAREY'S LETTER to Landrum-Griffin bill supporters said: "You should realize now, if you did not during the heat of battle, that this vindictive assault on the labor movement will, in the long run, prove to your constituents that you are less interested in individual rights and democracy than in property rights and the concentration of power in the hands of big business."

"YOU MAY BELIEVE that you are safe in such action because organized labor is relatively weak in your district, and cannot call you to account for the damage you have sought to do to it. You may be right—at the moment."

"We wish to assure you, however, that we shall do all in our power to prove to the working men and women in your district that you have cast your lot against them and they should therefore take appropriate action at the ballot box."

ALSO IN WASHINGTON, Senate House conferees today approached the controversial issues which could shatter their two days of harmony in compromise labor reform legislation.

Several conferees reported there was a good chance the 14-man committee would plunge into the big controversial issues this afternoon.

New Greyhound Depot Gains City Planners Okeh

City Planning Commissioners yesterday approved plans for a new, modern Greyhound Bus depot, scheduled for construction "as soon as possible" on the North Indian Avenue side of El Morocco Hotel, 336 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Greyhound officials said they have leased the land from Esther Glibert for the immediate construction of a 2,600 square foot building designed as a replacement for their old Indian Avenue depot.

Greyhound has been ordered to vacate the building at 221 North Indian Avenue by Sept. 1, following expiration of the company's lease. Temporary facilities will be set up in one of the hotel bungalows which will be cleared to make room for the new building.

MAYFAIR TO HOST RE-OPENING FEED AT STORE FRIDAY

Mayfair's Market at the scene of the disastrous Farmer's Market fire on North Palm Canyon Drive opened its doors to customers today—but the big celebration will be held tomorrow.

From 11 a.m. until 8 p.m., barbecue sandwiches and fish and chips will be served—free of charge—to all villagers.

It's a dual gesture from Earl Strebe and Duane Godfrey in announcing the reopening of the huge chain market to the public.

City Launching Police Pay Scale Quiz In Wake of Officer Resignations

Crime Takes Dive During July—Report

Chief Kettmann Says Village 'Healthy' During Past Month

In his report for the first month of this fiscal year, Police Chief August G. Kettmann said this week that July "proved to be a healthy month so far as criminal activities were concerned—with a notable drop in Class 1 crimes recorded."

Class 1 crimes include burglary, grand theft, and petty theft. Palm Springs recorded no rapes, homicides or robberies.

BAD CHECK traffic, which usually takes the lead in crime reports, showed a 33 per cent decrease over the same month last year, and local patrolmen checked a total of 467 homes during the summer month of July.

In addition they also checked a total of 2,400 doors and entries to business establishments during their night patroling.

IN TRAFFIC accidents, for the fifth consecutive month, the department recorded a decline—from 8 to 6 for July. Of this number only one included an injury, and that was minor, the report said.

Crew Recovers 32 Crash Dead

MONTSENY, Spain — UPI — Salvage crews today recovered the bodies of 32 persons who died Wednesday night when an English charter plane crashed into this mountain village north of Barcelona.

The grim salvage operations were slowed by fog that blanketed the area for the second straight day.

WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast:
Mostly sunny today and Friday but partly cloudy at times. Continued cool. Highs today 75-85 upper valleys, 90-100 lower valleys. Winds 20-35 miles an hour at times northern deserts. Yesterday's high, 96, low, 63.

DENVER MATRON NOT DISTURBED BY SWALLOWING MOUSE

DENVER (UPI) — A Denver matron who swallowed a live mouse last Friday said today she never would have gone to the hospital if she had known it would have caused so much "commotion." Mrs. Florence Hill said she has been deluged with telephone calls and stacks of mail from all over the country, most of it wanting to know if the story were actually true.

"If I were a young person, it might be different," she said indignantly "but a woman 67 years old isn't going to be telling lies like this."

Rescuers Fear Quake Victims Buried by Slide

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. — UPI — Authorities expressed fears today that occupants of an estimated 30 cars and trailers may be buried under mammoth earthquake-triggered slides near Yellowstone National Park.

Rescue workers dug wheels and pieces of bent metal out of debris in Madison Canyon where an 8,000-foot high mountain collapsed, sending 50 million tons of earth plunging into a campsite below.

CAMPERS IN nearby areas said the site was filled to capacity Monday night when the powerful earthquake shook the entire Pacific Northwest. Capacity at the camp was approximately 30 persons.

"There might be 100 people under that slide—or there might be only a few," said Madison County Sheriff V. H. Brown. "Probably we'll never know."

SKIN DIVERS were scheduled to enter an earthquake-formed lake with acetylene torches. While searching for bodies Wednesday, they saw a metal house trailer, its doors locked, in the murky water.

They will also check a report that a car carrying a man, a woman and a crippled child was swept downstream. They were unable to find a car in the water Wednesday.

UNION, BIG STEEL INTERPRET REPORT

WASHINGTON — UPI — Industry officials and the United Steelworkers Union both claimed today that the fact-finding report of Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell supported their widely divided positions in the 37-day-old steel strike.

The industry said Mitchell's statistics showed high wages, lagging profits and lowering worker productivity.

THE UNION CONTENDED the report, made public Wednesday night, revealed huge industry earnings and great employee productivity.

Mitchell himself declined to interpret the 18-pages of charts and figures he gathered that both sides knuckled down to hard bargaining and settle the strike "promptly."

AT UNITY HOUSE, Pa., the AFL-CIO Executive Council today considered a plan to seek cash contributions from nearly every member in the United States to aid 500,000 striking steelworkers.

The 29-man council was expected to approve unprecedented support for the five-week-old walkout to dramatize labor's charges that all unions are endangered if the steel industry successfully resists wage demands.

IN DENVER, THE International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers struck the Phelps-Dodge Copper Corp. in three states today.

Village Youth Runs Away After Dad's Spanking

A 12-year-old Palm Springs boy may be on his way to Alaska today—traveling on his bicycle.

He is Bobby Dollar, the sun-burned son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dollar, of 396 South Calle Santa Rosa.

MRS. DOLLAR TOLD police today that Bobby has been missing from home since 3 p.m. yesterday, when he left to deliver newspapers on his Desert Sun carrier route.

"Some of his playmates told me this morning that Bobby said he was going to Alaska," Mrs. Dollar reported.

She thought Bobby was running away because of an argument he'd had with his father a few days ago, but she wasn't sure.

"Bobby is a quite boy," Mrs. Dollar said. "He never says much and you never know what he's thinking or what he's going to do."

MRS. DOLLAR SAID the last she saw of Bobby was when he left to deliver his newspapers yesterday afternoon. She had no hint that he was planning to run away. "He said 'goodbye, momma,' twice to me before he left," she related. "I told him 'goodbye, be careful.' He's never run away before."

But Bobby apparently never delivered the newspapers dropped off at his home by a Desert Sun circulation department truck before he left.

DETECTIVE NEAL GREEN today issued an all-points bulletin to alert other Southland police agencies for the missing youngster.

Teen-Agers Held In Theft Wave

Nineteen-year-old Michael Read, a visitor from Portland, Ore., and three juvenile companions were today charged with burglary following a wave of petty thefts involving a stolen tire, a looted milk delivery truck and several cases of empty pop bottles.

Read, also being held for the alleged theft of a .22 pistol from the home of one of his pals, and his teen-age companions admitted taking eggs, milk and produce from the milk truck, the pop bottles—which they'd planned to cash in for deposits—and two telephone headsets from the telephone company warehouse.

Chief Admits 'Alarm' As Officers Quit

Force Depleted As Policemen Seek Better Paying Jobs

By FRED WEIGEL

Informed sources within the Palm Springs Police Department admitted today that there was "little doubt" that the half dozen resignations within the department in recent weeks were prompted by "the miserably low pay scale."

Police Chief August G. Kettmann today expressed "deep concern" in admitting that two more officers—Detective Darwin Mullins and Officer Harry Sigworth—have quit the force.

KETTMAN SAID he and other administrative officers of the force were convinced that the lack of a competitive salary scale here was "the main reason" for the high rate of resignation within the department.

The chief also admitted that he was fearful the rash of resignations might be the harbinger of more in the immediate future. Those close to the police picture here claim to "know of at least four" other officers who are seeking greener—U.S. currency green—pastures elsewhere.

KETTMAN'S REPORT for last month indicated that three men—Officer Quincy Welch, Parking Meter Maintenance Man Bill Lish and Clerk Martha Isaacson—had quit. Prior to that, officers Bill Madison, Tom Tobey, Bill Ward and Gene Holms Pablo had resigned and Detective Dick Larson, regarded officially as one of the top criminal investigators in the area, also took his leave.

Prior to that the local department lost Steve Stevenson—by transfer to the fire department—Mary Hefer, Norma Crans, Shirley Osborn, Mary Ann Fields, Dick Rajcher, John Bennet, Gene Britten, and Jack Fristad.

HIGHER PAY in other cities or other endeavors apparently remains the chief cause of the wave of resignations.

Palm Springs City Manager, a Dan Wagner, alerted to the severity of the local situation by Kettmann, has asked a survey of Palm Springs police salary set-up, with particular attention to the "competitive nature" of the scale here.

'Red Lama' Quits Chinese Masters

CALCUTTA, India — UPI — Savage Chinese Communist efforts to wipe out Buddhism in Tibet shocked the Panchen Lama into turning against his Red masters, reports reaching Calcutta said today.

The reports said the Panchen, Communist sponsored rival to the self-exiled Dalai Lama, was crystallized into action by the massacre of Buddhist monks, and the pillaging of sacred Buddhist possessions.

BESERK ELEPHANT KILLS 14 BUDDHISTS IN RELIGIOUS FETE

KANDY, Ceylon (UPI) — An elephant ran amok in a mammoth Buddhist torchlight procession early today and set off a panic in which 14 persons were killed and 325 injured.

One hundred thousand spectators and participants fled in terror as one of 100 elephants in the procession broke loose and charged into the throng.

Men hurled hundreds of kerosene lamps at the beast, which further enraged him. Many of the lamps fell among the crowd, scattering flaming fuel.

By GEORGE LAINE

CABAZON — Self-confessed gambler Billy Garcia unveiled his "new" Club Hoopo here last night with an hour and a half marathon harangue against "my enemies"—but a new issue of a national magazine stole most of his thunder.

Garcia got his show on the road promptly at 8 p.m. and didn't yield the microphone—except for introductions of the city's new council—until 9:40.

THAT'S WHEN ex-mayor L. Dee Tallent asked for and got the floor.

"They're a story about us in this week's issue of Time Magazine," Tallent declared in a thick Oklahoma twang. "And I can't say enough bad things about it."

"It's a disgrace to Cabazon. They call it a town of tumbleweeds."

"None of it is true," Garcia interjected.

"He talked to all of the 'wrong people' around here," Tallent declared.

BOBBY GARCIA

look at the tiny gambling town. (Most desert residents would argue that Time's reporters didn't stick around long enough to get the entire story or to get what they got correct. Sample: Time places Cabazon 75 miles to the south of Los Angeles.

The magazine terms Cabazon a town filled with "human tumbleweeds" and with "avarice and violence."

It also details how "Cabazon... won and richly deserved a reputation as the worst speed trap in Southern California" by quoting ex-Police Chief Robert Morton as explaining that Tallent "demanded a minimum of eight tickets per officer per day."

TALLENT BRANDED the story "all lies" and warned the 250 Cabazonians assembled for Garcia's fete that they shouldn't buy Time.

"That's what they want you to do," the 41-year-old real estate developer said. "Come on down to my place and read my copy. They sent me one for free."

He said he was going to get "the real story of Cabazon told by one of the real national magazines—like maybe Look or Life." (Apparently someone neglected to tell Tallent that both Time and Life are owned by one man—Henry Luce.)

EARLIER, THE crowd had shouted its approval as Garcia lashed out at newspapers, sheriff's deputies, Japanese PW camps during World War II and any or all of Cabazon's detractors.

Clad in a pair of striped Western pants, an ornately embroidered white Western shirt and a neck microphone, Garcia resembled an auto pitchman for a TV movie. He had some words for a Californian Assembly committee which branded him as associate of known mobsters in the state.

"In my past I have committed some sins which I have never denied," Garcia said, "and if I'm wrong now, I'll get down on my knees and apologize."

IN THE MEANTIME, Garcia told his crowd, he intends to launch libel action against two newspapers—The Desert Sun and the Banning Record—for printing the committee's allegations.

Garcia said he had never been questioned by the committee which charged him with associating with leaders of California's prostitution, gambling and narcotics operations.

Later, Garcia turned the mike over to a guitar player named John Stanley who played and sang an awesome array of Western tunes.

"After Bobby speaks," Stanley said, "we oughta play something like 'The Prisoner's Song'—or maybe 'He's in the Jailhouse Now'."

Bobby, standing nearby, didn't chuckle with the crowd. He didn't even smile.

Sulphuric Acid Used in Attack On Thompson

Laboratory Report
Indicates Union Foe
Was Attack Victim

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — An FBI laboratory check showed today that sulfuric acid was used in an attack on Rep. Frank Thompson (D-N.J.).

Thompson was squirted with the acid from a passing truck while driving to work Tuesday. No arrests have been made and police were at a loss today to explain the incident.

THOMPSON SAID a passenger in the truck shot the fluid at him from a syringe. A drop or so struck his arm and some landed on the side of his automobile. At the request of police, the FBI late Wednesday ran a laboratory check on the congressman's shirt and scraping from the car.

Thompson threw his arm up to protect his face. He moved later that the fluid had burned a hole in his shirt and left red marks on his arm.

THE TEST SHOWED the liquid was sulfuric acid of about the concentration used in auto batteries, according to K. J. Y. Chenault of the Washington police.

Thompson was a key figure in the House fight over labor reform legislation. He said he had received several threatening telephone calls in recent weeks in connection with the legislation.

But Thompson doubted that the attack had any connection with his role as an architect of the Democratic-sponsored "moderate" labor reform bill. He shrugged off the incident as the work of a "crank."

M'CALL HALTS PAY REVISION; COUNTY KEEPS CHECK PLAN

Supervisor Fred McCall dropped efforts this week to get the Board of Supervisors to make the five-step salary plan automatic regardless of an employee's merit status.

On his motion the board voted three to two—with Supervisors George Berkey and Paul Anderson dissenting—to return to the old method whereby the step increase is automatic unless a department head determines that and employee is undeserving and should wait longer for his raise.

For the past three months the new system requiring department heads to report to the personnel director and administrative officer on each employee as to his merit of the step increase has been in effect. This week's action will bring the new system to a halt in 30 days.

PAY PROBE

The department is allotted a total of 48 men and administrators. The breakdown shows 26 patrolmen and detectives, six sergeants; five lieutenants and eight police clerks. Actually, the department only has 21 patrolmen, five sergeants, five lieutenants, and six police clerks—a shortage of eight people.

THIS IS JUST two short of the complement for a complete shift on the department. The 4 p.m. midnight shift consists of a lieutenant, sergeant, clerk-receptionist and six patrolmen.

Police salaries need a new survey, according to City Manager Wagner, but "so do other departments of the city." "We plan to have the state survey board go completely through the salary set-up of the city," he said, "and then make both a verbal and written report to the administration and the city council."

PRESENT SALARY range for a police officer and detective is $300 - $400 per month; clerks get $286 to $352; sergeants draw $433 to $533.

From this salary, officers and clerks must buy and keep up their own uniforms—which have an initial cost of $250 dollars for men, $150 for women. Cleaning bills for the uniforms run upward of $50 per year.

Some resignations have said: "I have a chance to get a better job."

"I can't afford to travel 50 miles to attend police classes which in turn will hold me back for possible promotion."

AF to Attempt Recovery of Capsule Again

400-Pound Capsule
Target for New Recovery Attempt

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. — (UPI) — The Air Force makes another attempt today to bring an instrument-filled package back from an earth-circling artificial satellite.

The latest attempt to return a 400-pound capsule from a satellite whirling several hundred miles above earth was set for around 6:25 p.m. e.d.t. today.

SUCCESS WOULD prove out the basic technique developed to bring life-carrying satellites back to earth.

The 1,700-pound satellite carried no life, but success in today's hoped-for recovery probably would mark the scheduling soon of sending a monkey aloft in a recoverable capsule.

FOLLOWING WEDNESDAY'S successful orbiting of the second Discoverer satellite in less than a week, Maj. Gen. O. J. Ritland, commander of the Air Force Ballistic Division, and Herschel J. Brown, vice president of Lockheed Missile and Space Division, declared in a joint statement:

"Through the information and experience gained in the Discoverer series, the Advanced Research Projects Agency, the Air Force and Lockheed rapidly are preparing the way for launching of the first man in space."

RECOVERY AREA for Discoverer VI's package was a 200 by 50-mile section in the Pacific Ocean south of the Hawaiian Islands.

Success depended on split-second timing.

The capsule will be traveling 300 miles a minute when it is ejected from the satellite and will cover a distance of about 5,000 to 6,000 miles before it comes parachuting down to earth in the se-

The body resided in state in the Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral from noon Wednesday until noon today. Final funeral services were conducted at Arlington.

MURDER TRY SEEN IN GUN 'ACCIDENT'

Police today are following up a lead which may lead them to a case of attempted homicide.

Det. Sgt. John Herrera reported today that information he has received in the "accidental shooting of a Peter Johnson, 40, of 160 North Calle Santa Rosa, indicates that there is something haywire someplace."

FIRST REPORTS of the "accidental" shooting from police said that the man was shot once in the stomach, but following medical attempts the doctor said Johnson had two bullet holes in him.

According to reports today, Johnson had two bullet wounds, within just a few inches of one another, one going through the stomach and stopping at the spine, a column, and the other going through the stomach and exiting out the calf of his leg.

DURING THE investigation Sgt. Herrera told Johnson that he had been shot twice, to which he reportedly answered: "If I have, someone shot me."

The Almanac

Today is Thursday, August 20th the 232nd day of the year, with 133 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Mercury. The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this date in history:

In 1741, the Danish navigator Vitus Bering discovered Alaska.

In 1776, the American Army escaped from what might have been its death trap when General George Washington took it in a thick fog from Brooklyn to Manhattan, eluding the British fleet in the East River.

In 1914, German troops occupied Brussels, the capital of Belgium.

In 1940 Prime Minister Churchill made a moving tribute to the men of the R.A.F., telling the House of Commons: "Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few."

Thought For Today: The French author Gabriel Pascal said, "The heart has its reasons which reason does not know."

State Job Total Hits New Record

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California employment reached a record high in July, with 5,874,000 jobholders counted by the Department of Industrial Relations.

Department Director John F. Henning said this topped the record set in June by 11,000 and was 220,000 more than the employed population of a year ago.

Recovery in manufacturing was responsible for 102,000 jobs, or almost half of the increase over last year.

"WHEN I ENTERED the bathroom, in the dark," said the man from his bed in the hospital, "there may have been someone in there already, but I did not see or feel them."

Johnson, who said he was carrying the gun in the left hand pocket of his khaki pants, was shot twice on the right side, thereby giving little credence to the fact that the gun had accidentally dropped to the floor of the bathroom and discharged.

Batista Flies To Portugal Island Exile

Madeira Island
Will Be New Home
For Former Doctor

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (UPI) — Former Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista flew off to a new home-in-exile in Portugal Wednesday night, putting 3,000 miles of ocean between him and Fidel Castro.

Informed sources said Batista planned to land in Lisbon and then go to Madeira Island where he will live as a political exile with the permission of the Portuguese government.

BATISTA TOOK OFF in a chartered plane with 16 other Cubans, including two women.

They all fled to the Dominican Republic from Havana Jan. 1, one step ahead of the victorious revolutionary forces which engulfed Cuba under Castro.

BATISTA'S WIFE and six children were reported still at their home in Daytona Beach, Fla. It was not known whether they would follow him to Portugal.

No reason was given for the sudden departure and it was kept secret until after he plane was off the ground.

Batista had been trying to get into the United States and there had been various reports that he would take up residence in Europe.

Last year the American public spent 25 million hours reading its daily and Sunday newspapers.

Two Village Couples Hit Vegas 'Spots'

Two vacationing Palm Springs couples hit the highspots in Las Vegas this week, taking in two of the newest shows on the fabulous Vegas strip.

The William Olsens and Jerry Mitchells toured the strip show-case in the past few days, stopping to see the show "Holiday in Japan" at the New Frontier Hotel.

They were guests of general manager Bob Schmuck, and old-time Villager and one-time manager of the Desert Inn here.

Later, the visiting Villagers hopped over to the Sands Hotel, where Sands vice president Carl Cohen served as their host at the Johnny Mathis-Joeey Bishop show.

Actress 'Confused' On Marital Status, Asks Court Check

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Actress Nina Bara awaited a court ruling today to see if she's still married. If she is, she wants to file for divorce.

Miss Bara, 36, started a divorce action last week against Dick Winslow, 44, Disneyland orchestra leader, only to have Winslow insist they already were divorced.

He claimed in court Tuesday Miss Bara received an interlocutory divorce decree April 22, 1958. But Miss Bara said she never bothered picking up the final decree because they had reconciled briefly in the interim.

Spanish-Style Soda

NEW YORK (UPI) — American ice cream sodas inspired this Spanish-style soda beverage. Pour 1 or 2 ounces of amontillado sherry into a tall glass, add a scoop of orange sherbet, fill with carbonated water or club soda and stir. Add an ice cube and serve with straws.

Married Women's Ranks Show Gain In National Survey

Special to The Desert Sun

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The number of married women in the United States reached a total of about 41,500,000 in March 1958, a gain of more than 3,750,000 since 1950 and of about 11,333,000 since 1940, it is reported by statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

The rise has been particularly marked among the younger women, the statisticians point out. For women at ages 18-19, the proportion of those married has increased from about one in five to one in three since 1940, and in the 20-24 age group more than two thirds are married as against only one half 20 years ago.

At the same time, the birth rate among American wives has risen very substantially — from a rate of 125.9 per 1,000 married females aged 15 to 44 to 158.8 in 1956. The rise in the birth rate among the various age groups was: 17 per cent for those 15-19; 36 per cent for those 20-29; 24 per cent at ages 30-34; and 23 per cent at ages 35-39. Only in the 40-44 age group was there a decline — of 3 per cent.

Larger families are becoming quite common. The birth rate for third and fourth children more than doubled between 1940 and 1956, and that for fifth children almost doubled. And pointing up the trend to younger families, seven of every 10 babies are born to mothers under 30 years of age.

Not only are American wives marrying younger and having larger families, but more of them are working to help support their families. Nearly one third of the wives — about 13 million — were in the labor force in March 1958. Reflecting the tendency of wives to seek work after their children

A person whose weight is less than 20 per cent above normal is "overweight." More than 20 per cent means he or she is "obese."

'Don't Force Love on Child' Danny Kaye Warns Parents

NEW YORK — Never try to force affection on a preoccupied child; all children have a great sense of privacy, and you violate it at your peril.

So writes Danny Kaye, in the September Reader's Digest, telling how a mother and father in Central India taught him how to improve relations with his own seven-year-old daughter, Dena.

"Like so many other children, Dena is growing up in a family where her father is frequently away from home; like so many other fathers, I tried to make my homecomings compensate for these separations," he writes. "I'd arrive with a suitcase full of presents and smother her with plans for the next day, the next week. I'd hug her close, trying to make up for lost time. At each reunion she responded to me less. I didn't know what to do about it."

Then he went to India with a U. N. Children's Health group, and in a little hospital there, he watched the parents of a five-year-old boy reassure their son after an operation.

"I was nearby when the boy, Kirim, finally opened his eyes after the operation. If I'd been his father I'd probably have joked and laughed, and tried to make the boy smile. They spoke his name and touched his hand, but gave no display of their emotion. They talked when he wished to talk, laughed only when he did, were silent when he was silent. They let him decide how much attention he needed, how much love he wanted, and when . . ."

He remembered this lesson when he greeted his wife and daughter on his return, Kaye writes. "I kissed them warmly, but quietly, and the three of us left the airport hand in hand. I wanted so to walk doubled over, with my face thrust against Dena's, forcing upon her my attention, my accumulated sense of loss . . . but at last, I knew better."

They talked quietly, with Dena joining in tentatively, cautiously. Three hours passed before Dena, at dinner suddenly threw her arms into the air and shouted "How about a beach party tomorrow?"

"Hey!" I cried, "How about that?" I opened my arms to catch her as she launched herself at my neck. Since that day, I have never tried to drive my daughter from me by overwhelming her with my own moods," Kaye writes.

The article is titled "How I Learned a Lesson in Parenthood."

Tough Job to Keep Up With Rockefeller

SOEGNE, Norway — (UPI) — Kristian Rasmussen, who never had any trouble keeping up with the Hanssens, found his bankroll badly strained today by trying to keep up with his daughter's prospective in-laws, the Rockefellers.

The retired smalltime storekeeper is footing the entire bill for the marriage Saturday of his beautiful daughter Anne Marie to Steven Rockefeller, and friends and neighbors fear his determination to make the affair "foersteklassen" (first class) may tax his resources.

The church fees and the champagne reception and dinner to follow, with the meal served on porcelain generally reserved for royalty will probably run over 10,000 kroner (about $1,400).

This probably is less than a day's income for Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, father of the bridegroom, but it is a big bite into capital for a man whose entire earnings now are in the seasonal exports of lobster.

But Mrs. Bjoerg Faereth-Node-land, who runs the restaurant, the "Klubben," where the reception will be held, has been told to provide the best menus and wines she can and hang the expenses. By coincidence, considering Governor Rockefeller's presumed political ambitions, the "Klubben" is known locally as "the white house."

Tourists were offering up to $150 today for guaranteed admission to the Lutheran church where 21-year-old Anne Marie and 23-year-old Steve will make their vows. But the Rockefeller and Rasmussen families have agreed on a plan to thwart uninvited guests.

There are no admission cards. All guests have been invited personally. Controllers at the door will know everyone of the 180 invited guests and relatives by sight. No one else will get in. This has caused a bit of grumbling in this easy-going country where churches are rarely closed unless they are filled to capacity. The church holds 700 persons and while respecting the couple's wishes for a quiet ceremony, townsfolk feel it is a pity so many seats should go unused.

The family argument that these are just two young people in love is not taken seriously. Norwegians consider the wedding of the blonde buxom beauty and the multi-millionaire's son as the most exciting marriage since King Olav's nuptials 30 years ago.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON BROWN and Mrs. Beth comber's Club, Roy Bradley, also of Palm Fisher of Palm Desert were intrigued with the Springs—at the Ranch Club—in the winter, was authentic decorations that were provided at the responsible for gaily decorated Beachcomber's huge annual luau held at the Capistrano Beach Club. ## Mother-in-Law 'Goes With Me,' Says Actress

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Actress Marcia Drake cautioned today that any male thinking of marrying her would gain more than just a wife—he also would gain her five daughters and her mother-in-law by a former marriage.

The actress was awarded a divorce and custody of the children Tuesday after she testified her mother-in-law, Mrs. Marcella Feinberg, would continue to live with her and help take care of the children.

Miss Drake, 30, said the rift with her husband of 15 years, auto salesman Billy M. Feinberg, came because he believed she was devoting too much time to her acting career at the expense of taking care of the children.

"But I pointed out," she said, "that the additional income would provide better opportunities for the children and also that they were receiving excellent care in the hands of his mother."

"If I remarry, my new husband will inherit not only Mr. Feinberg's children as part of the family, but Mr. Feinberg's mother as well."

Cleaning Tip

NEW YORK — (UPI) — The porcelain enamel on electric ranges is essentially glass fused on steel, and should be handled like glass in cleaning. Enamel parts should not be washed while the range is warm. Spots of vinegar, milk, tomato, lemon and other fruit juices should be wiped up immediately to prevent dull spots caused by acids eating the shiny surface.

Explanation?

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Dr. William A. Diller, of Cornell University, studies birds in the hope of shedding light on human behavior.

As young birds become larger and less dependent on their parents, he reports, they become increasingly aggressive toward them. It seems to be part of the growing up process, Dr. Diller said.

Khrushchev's Switch to Courtesy Results in Bid to Visit America

Now that Premier Khrushchev of Russia has announced that he is assuming the role of "a peaceful man" during the period of the exchange of visits between himself and President Eisenhower to the countries represented by each, the combined affair can be viewed with more assurance and anticipation of abiding by the usual diplomatic protocol.

Under these conditions and courtesies the twin event takes on a much pleasanter and far more promising aspect in Soviet-American relations than anything which has yet been arranged for dual participation in by the two outstanding albeit opposing world leaders.

Following his preliminary sharp verbal clash with Vice-President Nixon, Khrushchev apparently decided to switch policies to more friendly treatment of America's "number two" visitor with the intention of winning approval for his several times voiced desire to "see" the United States. That he succeeded through a more cordial reception of the distinguished Americans including permitting them to inspect Russia's most secret and important accomplishments was readily evident in President Eisenhower's almost immediate invitation to visit this country.

The old adage that "seeing is believing" could play a very important part in shaping the future behavior and actions of the Russian premier following his visit to the United States.

Up to now Khrushchev has never been in this country and perforce could only depend upon reports from his subordinates to even imagine the progress and contrasting way of life between peoples of the two countries.

Because the Communist leader is a dictator holding the power of life or death over all Soviet citizens, it is to be expected that those reporting to him in all probability emphasized reporting on the "favorable" points of comparison from a Russian viewpoint and omitting or minimizing those not pleasing to his ear. Thus by actually seeing the United States Khrushchev will no doubt observe many things previously unknown which will impress him with a new and more accurate appreciation of America's greatness, strength and ability to carry out its determination to preserve world peace. Such evidences could well convince the Red leader of the futility of hostilities and the advisability of a more cooperative policy in world affairs.

While we Americans feel that we have appraised most things concerning Russia correctly due to our policy of learning and publishing only the truth about all things at all times, it is possible that even our best informed individual in the person of President Eisenhower may also discover a number of hitherto unknown facts about Russia during his tour of that nation.

In any event the opening wide of the "iron curtain" to our chief executive, combined with an exchange visit to this country by Khrushchev, cannot help but work towards "thawing" out the cold war to some extent and making for a general lessening of tensions between the populations of the world's two most powerful nations.

This in itself is well worth entering into the plan, even though we as loyal citizens of the United States that we must keep our "guard up" and be well prepared to meet any challenge by Russia at any time or place.

Eternal vigilance combined with a determination and readiness to defend it is the price we must pay to maintain our freedom against those who would destroy our country from without or within.

No Shade From That Tree Anymore

This Side of The Sun By Phat

Lawn planting time
Is not far off
So now's the time to think
To make it grow
Let's use some stuff
Without that awful smell.

It may still feel like the middle of summer to you but time is marching on.

Football season is about here, in another month they'll be quoting odds on the World Series and mothers have already started the count down on the day when they thrust the little dears back into the tender care of the teachers.

Every year, about the end of October there are letters to the editor, conciliatory discussions and bar stool gossip about the odor that permeates the otherwise pure desert air. But by that time, the new lawns are all in and growing.

Then there are solemn resolves that next year there'll be some changes made. The grass will be persuaded to grow without that stockyard scent.

So it isn't too early to start thinking about it.

NO SUMMER passes without some gag, probably induced by the warm weather, perpetrated by Stan Rosin, Leo Baker and Bob Levin.

The former is generally on the receiving end but, so far, has evened things up.

Two years ago, Rosin received a live alligator from the other two who were in Florida. There was considerable confusion before the situation was resolved.

LAST YEAR, while Rosin was in Catalina where he spends his summers, Baker and Levin uprooted a sign from the grounds of a discontinued restaurant and planted it in front of Rosin's house. Then they complained to the city and a warrant was issued charging Rosin with violation of the sign ordinance.

It was sent to Avalon police who picked up Rosin and were booking him as a fugitive from Palm Springs when the joke was revealed.

POLICE WENT ALONG with the gag and Stan was photographed in prison garb on the rock pile, making little ones out of big ones.

He got even. Asked to furnish bail, he did. Bales of hay, sent collect to Police Chief A. G. Kettmann, Judge Gene Theriault, City Attorney Jerry Bunker and Baker and Levin.

THIS YEAR Baker and Levin were in San Francisco. They each sent Rosin, in Catalina, a picture postcard. The picture was of Alcatraz.

On one, the message was "Wish you were here." On the other, just "Help!"

Rosin helped. To each he sent a loaf of bread into which a heavy file had been baked. Collect.

ADELE BROTT, wife of that well known judge of figures — auditing, that is — Kenneth Brott, unbeknownst to him, invited their young grandson, not quite two, to visit them.

Mr. Brott, informed of the guest, was philosophical. "Oh, well, he can't do any more damage around the place than I do," he said.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

This is one of those days. We are back in Paris. At the great, stone Hotel Crillon overlooking the fountains of the Place de la Concorde.

Our teen - age daughter has flown over for Education and Broadening. My word!

"Wake me at three in the morning," I told the maid. "Soyez tranquille, M'sieu!" Come down off that chandelier.

Somebody knocked on my door at 3 a.m. and I picked up the phone. No answer. I jiggled the hook. This is a terrible mistake. No French phone is tranquil. And if you jiggle the hook, you send it into fits.

I got up and put on my clothes and went downstairs. I got a phone and called TWA. "What time does your polar flight 870 arrive?" "It is late. It will not be in until 7:45."

I WENT BACK upstairs and got back in bed. I left word to call me at 6. "Soyez tranquille!" said the night concierge.

At 6 o'clock the phone rang. I held onto the operator until I got TWA again.

"Is your flight 870 still coming at 7:45?"

"The flight is now early. It is on the ground."

I called Orly and told the passenger agent to get hold of a sleepy looking teen-age child and have her call me. Also please put her in a taxi. Get her money changed and tip the porters.

I GOT UP AND splashed water in my face and put on my clothes. I tried to be tranquil. But missing a plane does something to my nerves. I took a tranquilizer and went downstairs and met the cab.

"Are you sleepy, my dear? Why don't you go to bed for awhile. Be tranquil."

Well, it seems she slept all night on the plane. She was quite lively and ready to see Paris. I took her to a sidewalk restaurant and got her some breakfast. I had them give me a glass of fruit with a little tranquil champagne sprinkled on it.

BY NOON SHE was getting sleepy and I was just waking up.

"Can you stay awake until 2?" We are having some pictures taken in a new Renault that is going on the market next year.

She yawned dreadfully but said she would try.

At 2 o'clock the photographer arrived with a new red Florida. The new Renault sports model that will be out in January. She was so bushed she nearly fell off the seat. I tore my pants catching her.

I WENT BACK to my room and put on some other pants and called the maid.

"Be tranquil!" she cried. "I go to mend the pants."

I took another Miltown and went to bed. I had just got to sleep when the maid came back. She said to be tranquil. The housekeeper was now examining my pants and would give a report.

I took off my pants and went back to bed.

I HAD JUST got to sleep again when the housekeeper knocked. I put on my pants and let her in. She said all the invisible weaver of Paris were now invisible — mainly being on vacation since this was August.

She advised me to try again in September. Meanwhile, be tranquil.

I took an aspirin and went back to bed.

I had just fallen asleep again when the phone rang.

"Daddy? I'm awake now. I had a long nap. Where are we going?"

I GOT UP AND took a bath and another tranquilizer.

We went up to Montmartre for dinner where I found the atmosphere so tranquil I fell asleep over the soup and just about embarrassed everybody to death.

"Gosh," she said, "you could at least stay awake. You haven't done anything all day!"

EARL WILSON:

'Being a Movie Star Not Enough'

NEW YORK — Paul Newman's answer to Tony Curtis' crack that he's crazy to act on the B-way stage is: "He's right if you want to be JUST a movie star — but who wants to be JUST a movie star?"

After courteously explaining that he didn't want to clash with Curtis, Newman then let him have it with:

"Why didn't he use the word 'actor' instead of star?" "Being only a movie star in the field of acting is like being a swimmer who never swims under water. No, that's a bad example. It's like being a great race horse, but he can't run in the rain."

"In pictures, you acquire certain successful mannerisms you can't get away with on the stage. "On the stage you can't stop and say, 'I got off to a bad start. Roll 'em again, fellows.' Nor are you able to cut out a bad section. "I have seen some people get lucky and do a movie scene right after seven takes."

"I hope to do a play every third year," said Paul, who's starring in "Sweet Bird of Youth." Gently, he added, "I know this slows down my movie career. But what the hell, I don't think being a movie star is the end-all of everything!"

Jack Paar's scouts grabbed Ronnie Schell, the gifted Blue Angel comic, from San Francisco, to make him famous. . . . Jack E. Leonard, taping a "Who Pays?" show at NBC with Mike Wallace, snapped to Mike: "I didn't recognize you on a major network."

Dagmar, Marilyn Maxwell and Julie Wilson have worked out a wild beatnik song for the "Playgirls" show they'll do in Las Vegas for Producer Jackie Barnett, titled, "We're the Mothers of Tomorrow."

Marlon Brando forgot the shish kebab dinner young actress Lorri Scott cooked for him, so she's indignantly sending him the spikes with a note, "This is all that's left of what you missed." . . . Marilyn Monroe's reading Photographer Sam Shaw's script of "Paris Blues," which Brando'll produce after filming "The Ugly American" in Siam next spring. . . . Tuffy Tuttle babbled at the Forum of the 12 Caesars that she always drives with the emergency brake on, so when any emergency arises, she's got it kicked instantly. . . . Two Kansas spinsters were talking. First: "What kind of time did you have in N.Y.?" Second: "Eastern Daylight Time."

With her husband Larry Puck over his heart attack, Marion Marlowe's blissful not only because she's in the new Mary Martin show, but "Because I got four phones in my house and can listen in on all of them" . . . Gene Wesson, while mulling at the Pendulum strip tease palace, won $6,000 on the horses, quit and became a TV producer. . . . Jackie Gleason moved into the Astor for his "Take Me Along" rehearsals. His pal Toots Shor said, "Bill Zeckendorf's too nice a guy to deserve that." . . . Terri Stevens, who's expecting, is clicking with her "Adonis" record same as expectant Lu Ann Simms is with "Do I Really Love You."

EARL'S PEARLS . . . A smart business man (says Buddy Morrow) is a guy who makes most of his income look like expense.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Inside Story on Crosby Rift

HOLLYWOOD — Italian beauty Sophia Loren's English is much better than her press agents would have you believe. When I asked her what she thought of Calix Gable, her co-star in "Bay of Naples," she came up with this delightful left-handed compliment: "He's adorable, even though he is much older than I am. I like older men. Besides, his new suntan helps."

Dunno what Prince Rainier will have to say about it but a new hotel springing up on Fountain Avenue in Hollywood is called The Princess Gracie.

HERE'S THE REAL inside dirt on those "personal, very personal" reasons Gary Crosby refused to discuss regarding the clash of arms in the Crosby clan. It started two years ago when Bing's new bride, Kathy Grant, slashed all of the mementoes of the late Dixie Lee, Kathy's predecessor and the mother of The Four Crosbys, in storage — monogrammed linens, silver, etc. — anything and everything that would remind Bing of Dixie. Gary made a big scene about it. Kathy slapped him. They made up. But last Yuletide Lindsay spent $300 on Christmas presents for his dad, stepmother and new half-brother Harry Lillis ("Tex") Crosby Jr. Gary decided to spend Christmas in Las Vegas. Lin, who's as close to Gary as twins Dennis and Philip are to each other, decided to go too. This angered Bing and Kathy, who wanted Lin to spend Christmas with them. Kathy packed up the presents and returned them to Lin. It was the end of the line for Lin and for Gary.

A gagster sent Shirley MacLain a script about a leotarded ballerina and her dancing partner in which the partner is called Leo Tard.

FOX IS FINE-FETTERED over May (pronounced "My-O-May") Britt's cover on the photo of a national map, plus that inside plug for its picture, "The Blue Angel." But the boys are a little disconcerted by the mag's references to May's "happy married life" with millionaire Stanford University student Eddie Gregson — because they have since separated.

I cranked up my Essex and drove down to the Biltmore Theatre to catch "Say, Darling" with Lisa Kirk, Orson Bean and Johnny Desmond. A fine, funny show — within a — show about the difficulties of staging a musical on Broadway.

Dorothy Arnold aired back to Hollywood with her son, Joe DiMaggio Jr., after a two-year stay in New York, for an MGM-TV venture — the femme lead in one of Gardner McKay's Adventures in Paradise segments. The ex-champ's image got a job for himself too — working in a Los Angeles rug factory.

John Gabriel went back to New York for some TV and theatre work. He writes me: "I found a very reasonable apartment — only $350 a month, and has a fabulous view of a clothes-line."

Rookie of the Year---Final

WASHINGTON, D. C. — There is a strong strain of boobosity in every panel of politicians, and from a negative viewpoint, the 18 freshmen in the 86th Senate is a distinguished group — the incidence of boobosity is very low. In picking the Rookie Senator of '59, one has the pleasure of consorting with intelligent, sophisticated men — and the difficulty of segregating ermine from mink, and of choosing favorites among some good friends.

One thing you ask when a House member rises to the Senate is this — does he grow Senators Winston L. Prouty; Harrison A. Williams, Jr.; Eugene J. McCarthy and Stephen M. Young are all former representatives, but the question gets a loud affirmation only in the case of Young.

PROUTY DID excellent work on the Labor Bill, but has not otherwise shone. It may be that Pete Williams and Gene McCarthy — both youngish, handsome, leftish — have big futures in the Senate and in the Democratic party, but it was Steve Young — oldish, puckish, unpredictably liberal — who stole a big piece of the show at the present session. Young succeeded because he is an intense believer in his political creed and because he is gifted with a warm, witty personality which reaches out like an encircling arm. Another newcomer who combines the qualities of brain and breast is Phil Hart of Michigan who is a comer despite a rather inconspicuous maiden session. Young is the best of this group, but he doesn't quite reach the finals.

Three freshmen Senators remain in contention for the title. Tom Dodd of Connecticut would be my pick as the best Democrat in the election class of '58. Last autumn his attorney was threatening to sue me for some campaign rhetoric in this column, and I was not prepared to like Dodd when we met at the beginning of the session. But I like him now — and admire him. By several measurements of what makes a good Senator, this man is very good indeed.

ALTHOUGH A FAITHFUL

Democrat, Dodd has left the party line rather than go wrong. He was the only freshman Democrat to vote for confirmation of Lewis Strauss. He is one of the few non-Southern Democrats to join Republicans in sponsoring anti-Communist legislation for internal security. Although anything but a show-off, he has pushed his special knowledge (as a former Nuremberg Trials prosecutor) into foreign policy debates—something rarely done by non-members of the Foreign Relations Committee. From the Berlin crisis last spring to the Eisenhower-Khrushchev exchanges of late summer, Dodd has been the most consistent Democratic voice to shout warnings against concealed surrender to Soviet demands. He is the best Democratic freshman, and one of the very best new school, non-leftist Democratic Liberals on the Hill.

But the best Senate rookie, regardless of party, has got to be either Keating of New York or Scott of Pennsylvania. Both are former Representatives who have risen instantly to Senatorial heights. Both are Eisenhower Republicans who have veered, both left and right, from the White House line. Both are strong, hard-working, well-spoken, high-minded gentlemen, with troops of admirers and no consequential enemies in either political camp.

HOW TO CHOOSE between them? Scott, I think, cast the best single vote. It was one on May 22nd, with only four other Senators, to repeal all farm price support programs and to freeze the current farm surplus. Keating is, perhaps, the more subtle thinker as illustrated in his speeches against Supreme Court usurpation. Scott may be the White House's most forceful champion in the Senate, as was shown in his superb support of Lewis Strauss. Keating may be the Senate's most industrious Republican. As chairman of the G.O.P. Calendar Committee, he is probably on the floor as much or more than any member of his party.

Scott does the two-party system enormous service by engaging in regular television debates with his Democratic colleague, Joe Clark of Pennsylvania. Keating does the conservative position equal credit by serving as contrast to his ultra-liberal Republican colleague, Jacob Javits. Both Scott and Keating are alert guardians of their States' interests; as well as being wide-awake to national affairs.

THERE AREN'T TWO better Senators on Capitol Hill than these two Republican rookies. It happens that Scott is a personal friend of mine, while Keating is only an acquaintance. If somebody put a gun at my head and bade me to choose the better man, I would say something like this:

The New Yorker penetrates more deeply into the philosophy of human government. The Pennsylvanian is a little more muscular and flat-footed and seems a shade — a microscopic shade — more concerned with placing emotional patriotism as a high American virtue. Too often, he says, young people see the USA image as the "lady with the lamp" rather than the "lady with the lamp."

By a photo finish and on the thesis of Americanism — over — all, the Honorable Hugh Scott comes home as Rookie Senator of the year.

Quotes From the News

ENNIS, Mont. — Mrs. Irene Bennett, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, describing the earthquake and collapse of a mountain top that killed her husband and three of her children:

"Suddenly we all heard that terrible rumbling. I saw my husband yelling. He told me to grab a tree. I saw him grab a tree, but I never saw him again."

Moore Keeps Feather Title On TKO Win

Bassey Refuses Bell for Round 11 Because of Injuries

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Davey Moore, the Springfield, Ohio, rifle, is the winner and still world featherweight champion today but he should give a nod of thanks to British tradition for the ease with which he accomplished his second victory over Hogan (Kid) Bassey.

Moore was well ahead on points, no doubt, Wednesday night when he was credited with an 11th round knockout of Bassey, the chocolate-colored pride of the British Empire from Nigeria.

BUT THE 25-YEAR-OLD titleholder and the crowd at Olympic Auditorium had to be surprised when Bassey failed to answer the bell for the 11th.

The 27-year-old African himself decided to call a halt because of handicap he incurred—namely a closed right eye and a right hand which he was unable to use from the fifth round on because of an injury.

BASSEY'S MANAGER, publisher George Biddles, hinting his tiger may retire, explained it this way, in the pattern of British sportsmanship:

"I personally don't feel a fine gentleman like this (pointing to Bassey in the dressing room) should have to go on in boxing if he is going to get serious injuries all the time. He has had too many injuries in too many fights."

REFEREE FRANKIE Van took this viewpoint in answer to a question:

"No, I certainly would not have stopped the fight. It was a world championship contest."

Moore, who won the title last March 18 in the same arena under similar circumstances was unbothered by the talk about Bassey's ability or inability to continue. In the March fight Moore scored a 13th round kayo when Bassey was bleeding from cuts above both eyes.)

U.S. CAGERS READY FOR PAN-AM TILTS

CHICAGO (UPI) — The United States basketball team which will compete in the Pan American Games may be the best hardwood squad ever put together, center George Bon Salle said today, so there's no doubt it will win the Pan American crown for a third time.

The team, selected last April in tryouts involving college, amateur and armed service champions, will play its first competitive games Friday, Saturday and Sunday in a three-game series against the Cleveland Sweeney's at Toledo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, "We're ready for anything," Ohio.

Bon Salle said: "We can play control ball or run. We've got rebounding, speed, shooting, poise and confidence. I've never seen better ball players than we've got so I don't see how we can lose."

Bon Salle, a former Illinois star who played a year with a team in Milan, Italy, before he became the National Industrial Basketball League's "rookie of the year" last season with the championship Denver-Chicago Truckers, has been the starting center on the Pan American squad since its first workout.

MEXICAN COLONY, BILTMORE CLASH AT POLO GROUNDS

The champion Biltmore Hotel team, with pitcher Neal Green hurling will play the Mexican Colony—with Frank Prieto tossing the ball—tonight at 8 p.m.

This will be the fourth time that the two teams have clashed in play at the Polo Grounds, with the Mexican team taking the first one and the Biltmore winning the other two.

The Mexican Colony is the only team in the league that has beaten the Biltmore team in this year's softball series.

Ford, Wall Vie For Rubber City Golf Trophy

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) —Doug Ford, twice a bridesmaid, and defending champion Art Wall Jr., were among the 132 pros and amateurs who teed off today in the opening round of the $22,000 Rubber City Open.

Ford, runnerup in last week's Motor City Open and one of the most consistent money winners on the pro circuit, fell by the wayside twice in sudden death play-offs in his two other attempts to take home the first place RCO money.

HE WAS DUMPED in a four-way playoff by Henry Ransom in 1955 and then Arnold Palmer did it two years later.

Wall, who already has pocketed more than $47,000 this year to lead the money-bags parade among the pros, will be gunning for his second straight RCO crown.

SINCE COPPING the $2,900 first place purse a year ago, the Pennsylvanian, who uses an unorthodox baseball grip, has won six crowns, including four on the current tour.

Another former champion, Tommy Bolt, who won the crown five years ago when the 72-hole medal play was moved to the Firestone course for the first time, served notice he plans to be a strong contender.

Hard, Arth Set To Defend Title In Doubles Play

CHESTNUTHILL, Mass., (UPI) —Darlene Hard and Jeanne Arth, the upset kids of last year, opened the defense of their crown today in the National Doubles championships, meeting Mrs. Louise Brough Clapp of Pasadena Calif., and Mrs. Barbara Green Weigandt of Alexandria, Va.

Miss Hard, the erratic swinger from Montebello, Calif., and the 24-year-old Miss Arth, of St. Paul, Minn., rose from the unseeded ranks last year to topple Maria Bueno and Althea Gibson.

Continental Loop Bids Franchises; Honolulu Named

NEW YORK (UPI) —The infant Continental Baseball League, which is trying to pick three more cities to complete an eight-team loop for action in 1961, is drawing franchise applications the way honey draws flies.

That became apparent today with the disclosure that in some of the seven cities already under consideration rival groups are bidding for franchise rights. There was also a report that a group representing Hawaii, the nation's newest state, is seeking a berth in the new big league.

WILLIAM A. SHEA, chairman of the league's founding group, met Wednesday with one group seeking a franchise for Atlanta and later issued a revealing statement.

"Don't get too enthusiastic about this franchise," said Shea. "There are others in Atlanta who also have to be considered."

IT WAS LEARNED that this two-groups-in-one-city situation also holds true in some of the other cities under consideration.

Rams Will Start Power Backfield

REDLANDS (UPI)—A powerhouse backfield of Jon Arnett, Tom Wilson, Ollie Matson and Billy Wade will start against the Washington Redskins Friday night.

Coach Sid Gillman of the Los Angeles Rams said Del Shofner would start at left end and Lamar Lundy at right end. Only starting rookies will be Ed Meador of Arkansas Tech.

Rams have been picked as nine-point favorites.

Talk about the staggers, get a load of this:

SAN FRANCISCO, the National League leader, has lost five of its last seven games.

Over in the American League, the pace-setting White Sox have dropped three of their last four. The second-place clubs are stumbling around just as badly. Los Angeles has won only four of its last 11 and Cleveland has lost four of its last five.

THAT BRINGS US down to the third-place Braves, who lost six of their last nine. But at least they beat the Giants, 5-2, Wednesday night to climb within three games of the top.

Low Burdette won his 17th game holding the Giants to six hits, including Orlando Cepeda's 24th and 25th homers. Del Crandall put Milwaukee ahead to stay with his 15th homer in the fifth.

THE REDS BEAT the Dodgers, 9-4; the Cardinals scored a 10-inning 8-6 victory in the completion of a game suspended on July 12 but lost the regularly scheduled contest, 4-2.

The Phillies topped the Cubs, 4-1, in the opener of a two-night twin-bill, then played a 12-inning 7-7 tie that finally was halted because of the curfew.

IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE, the Orioles whipped the White Sox, 3-1 and the Indians snapped a four-game losing streak by defeating the Senators 5-4. The Yankees finally beat their nemesis, Frank Lary of the Tigers, 10-5, and the Athletics humbled the Red Sox 6-3.

Ports Hang On, Beat Spokane in 10 Innings, 8-7

United Press International
If Portland's Tommy Heath landed in the worried-wrecks ward of the hospital today, you couldn't really express surprise.

Round Tommy lives and dies with the antics of his league-leading Portland Beavers. The Beavers were in a first place tie with Spokane, but they had lost five of their last eight games. Some were real heartbreakers.

THE BEAVERS HELD a steady 7-3 margin going into the ninth inning against the hard-hitting Indians.

Then . . . the Indians rallied for four runs to tie the game. A loss could mean bye-bye baby to Tommy's first pennant since 1950.

BUT THE BEAVERS managed to pull it out with a single run in the 10th to win, 8-7. They now hold a half-game margin over Salt Lake and are a game and a half ahead of Vancouver, which was beaten again by the white-hot Seattle Rainiers, 6-0.

San Diego beat Phoenix, 1-0 in the only other game. Sacramento's game at Salt Lake was rained out.

Bill Rosensohn, who promoted first fight, has severed connections with these men, today was scheduled for quizzing by New York district attorney.

D.A. WILL GRILL ROSENDOHN AGAIN

NEW YORK (UPI) —Bill Rosensohn, key figure in three investigations of the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson fight promotion, was scheduled for questioning today by Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan.

This questioning will precede 39-year-old Rosensohn's appearance Wednesday before the "boxing" grand jury, which seeks to unearth any underworld connections with the fight game.

SUSPENDED PROMOTER Rosensohn, who had cut short a European vacation at the district attorney's request, was slated to arrive by plane from London early today.

For his own protection, Rosensohn was to have been met at International Airport by detectives from the D.A.'s office. He had been under police guard before he went to Europe. It was Rosensohn's disclosures about being forced out of his own organization — Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc.—that brought about the investigations.

ACTIVITIES SURROUNDING the Johansson-Patterson promotion are being investigated by the D. A.'s office, the state attorney general's office and the state athletic commission.

Before his vacation, Rosensohn made five trips to the district attorney's office.

Lifeguards Kill 10-Foot Shark

LA JOLLA, Calif. (UP) — Lifeguards killed a 10-foot hammerhead shark Tuesday in the general area where sharks have killed one skindiver and attacked another.

Bob Shea, 21, and Edward Webb, 22, made the kill several hundred yards off Wind 'n Sea Beach by catching the sea monster on a baited line and then dragging it backwards through the water until it drowned.

It was the first shark kill by lifeguards since they were assigned to patrol the area where Robert Pamperin was killed by a shark last June 14 and another skindiver was attacked a short time later.

But another hammerhead shark, a nine-footer, was killed by a skindiver in the general area last week after it menaced him and a friend for 20 minutes.

Solving prior to Mrs. Stockton driving the boys east, Diana Lloyd daughter of Mrs. Chuck Hough, who manages Montezano, left by plane from Palm Springs Airport Wednesday for Vancouver, B. C., to visit for two weeks with her aunt Mrs. Betty Allard. Diana arrived Monday from Riverside where she had been working during the summer vacation from college.

Postmaster and Mrs. Sidney Greenleaf are enjoying a vacation in Oregon and plan on visiting in Nevada before returning to the desert.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson — of Hoams Construction — are her sister Mrs. John Stelzer and daughter Vicki and baby son Ricky who make their home in San Diego. The Andersons' son Chris left Sunday with his aunt and uncle and cousins the Ray Hills of Palos Verdes Estates, on a three week automobile tour through Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Anderson — he's a painting contractor — spent the weekend in Idyllwild as the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. John Westin, and on Sunday celebrated Mr. Anderson's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boland and children Donna and Brian arrived Monday night from Cardiff By The Sea where they have been spending the summer. ## New Seaway Has Legal Battles

WASHINGTON (UP) — Lawmakers from Gulf and Atlantic ports joined forces today to try to block expansion in American grain exports through the newly-opened St. Lawrence Seaway.

Lined up against them were congressmen from Great Lakes ports eager to boost still further their new-found business of exporting corn, oats and barley.

PUBLICITY STUNT PUTS MAN ON ROCK IN APPLE VALLEY

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (UP) — Neither rats, dust, sand, heat, flying ants or boredom will prevent a red-headed Florida man from staying atop a 60-foot rock in the desert until Oct. 4.

That was the vow made yesterday by Jim Coble, 33, who is being paid $2 a day to stay atop the rockpile at "Deadman's Point."

Coble, a carpenter, came west seeking work. Local businessman Mike Dressler selected him to climb the rockpile last July 5 and stay there alone until Oct. 4.

The stunt is to help entertain visitors to Dressler's Western Village at Deadman's Point.

Coble raises the American flag over his perch daily on a flagpole he erected himself. A cable leading to the ground hauls up Coble's food and other necessities in a bucket.

Visitors to the site, once a rallying point for hostile Indians who met wagon trains on the old Holcomb Trail, seldom are able to talk to Coble because their shouts are lost in the wind.

State Asking Mexican Farm Labor Assist

Federal Government Asked to Expedite Importation of Labor

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — The California Employment Office has filed a request with federal officials to help expedite the importation of Mexican farm laborers.

S. G. Goodman, acting state employment director, said he has wired the Department of Labor in Washington that California farmers need crop workers urgently. He said a big peach crop in Stanislaus County and the Marysville area has increased the need for peach pickers.

State officials are investigating complaints that the Farm Placement Services has turned away domestic workers in favor of Mexican nationals.

Jesse Carr, director of finance, started an inquiry a month ago. He was then state director of employment. Attorney General Stanley Mosk also has launched an investigation.

The U. S. Labor Department is closely watching the investigations to see that employers meet minimum standards for pay, housing and food for Mexican workers.

County Nixes High Bid on Blythe Land

Second Bid Held 'Responsible'; Big Plans to Be Told

Without explanation, County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., recommended to the Board of Supervisors this week that they return to William L. Kaye of Sunny-mead his bid deposit and reject his bid of $128,000, the highest received in spirited bidding July 13 for 900 acres of Blythe Airport property, "as not being the bid of a responsible person."

Acceptance of the second highest bid of $125,500 by an Indian group headed by O. C. Easter "as the highest bid of a responsible person," was recommended by Sullivan and approved by the board of supervisors. The airport commission concurred with Sullivan's recommendation.

ONLY SUPERVISOR Fred McCall offered any comment Monday. Asked he:

"Wasn't Kaye bidding for someone else? I think we should look into it before we act. I wonder if we shouldn't hold up and give Kaye an opportunity to present the other parties. I thought all the time his bid was really made for someone else."

His remarks drew no response from his fellow supervisors, and he voted with them to approve Sullivan's recommendation.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I broke a long engagement to marry another man. Unfortunately, I got pregnant right away. I know now that I should have married the first fellow.

My husband is overseas and won't return until January, 1960. The baby is due in March. My ex-boyfriend lives out of state but he visited here recently. We got together and realized we love each other. We both agreed to forgive and forget. He's coming back in the fall to work here.

My mother thinks I should wait until my husband comes home before I divorce him. My friends say I should divorce him right now before my old boyfriend comes back to town, otherwise people will talk. What do you think?

—TROUBLED MIND

DEAR TROUBLED: I think it's time you grew up! You are a married woman, about to become a mother. You took a sacred vow—"Until death do us part." You can make a success of your marriage if you try. Wait for your husband—and wait faithfully. The spiritual and moral strength you lack can be found in any church.

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a man who buries his wife on Monday and asks you for a date the following Saturday?

I accepted—out of sympathy—and he acted like a sailor who was just off the boat. His wife was a good friend of mine and I know she was sick for a long time, but I don't think there was any excuse for the hurry this man was to make up for lost time.

I told him I didn't think I should go out with him in public again because people might talk. So he is been parking himself here every night telling me how lonesome he is. I think he is rushing things too much. How can I slow him up without discouraging him completely?

—WIDOW WOMAN

DEAR WIDOW: A man who shows so little respect for the memory of his departed wife doesn't deserve much consideration. Tell him plainly that you refuse to be alone with him until the customary mourning period has passed. If you're wise, you'll put this man "on ice" for a year. He could use some cooling off.

Looking For Ideas? Try This!

Anyone who has read these messages of ours must know by now that we are in love with Palm Springs. We are in favor of anything that benefits this beautiful city of ours. This goes for laws that protect the comfort and safety of our fellow citizens as well as adding to the beauty of our surroundings. No place on earth should have higher standards than ours. Most important, these high standards should be maintained without fear or favor regardless of who is involved.

We strive to set a good example in this respect by maintaining the most rigid quality controls in our building operations. No single item is unimportant to us. Starting with every member of our own organization, our architects, our sub-contractors, our landscape experts, and interior decorators, everyone is instilled with the importance of doing their job right.

Speaking of landscaping and interior decoration gets us to our headline about "looking for ideas." Many people who visit our model homes are really not interested in buying but are frankly looking for ideas to improve the homes they already own. They are intrigued with the beauty of the landscaping and interior furnishings. Such visitors are always most welcome. We are so proud of our work that we like to meet people who appreciate it.

So once again let us invite you to visit us. Stay as long as you like and ask all the questions you need answers for. Maybe one of your questions will concern our ability to sell such beautiful homes as those in Racquet Club Road Estates for as little as $950 down and an easy to pay 6%, 25 year, 1st Trust Deed.
